LOCAL FISHING SPOTS HIGHLIGHTED IN OUTDOORS MAGAZINE
County of Renfrew Featured In Current Issue of Ontario Out of Doors Magazine

Pembroke, ON: Numerous well known and not so well known fishing locations are featured in the Spring Edition of the very popular magazine, Ontario Out of Doors. The lengthy article is filled with many colourful pictures depicting the natural beauty of the county and depicts the best fishing areas in and around the Ottawa River. Ontario Out of Doors is devoted to the outdoor community of Ontario and is printed monthly, and is recognized as one of the leading outdoor recreational/tourism magazines in the country.

County of Renfrew Warden Bob Sweet echoed the complimentary nature of the article. “More and more people throughout Ontario are beginning to recognize the County of Renfrew as an incredible place to live and visit. Much of our vast tourism market is built around the natural beauty of our waterways. I encourage anyone who might read this magazine to take advantage of a very affordable and scenic place to visit.”

The County of Renfrew is home to over 900 fresh water lakes and 4 major rivers within its boundaries. In addition to its year round tourist destinations and business opportunities, the County of Renfrew is only 45 minutes from Ottawa, and is the largest county in Ontario.
